

THE NAKED TRUTH by V. M. LAKHSMI

INTRODUCTION

In the blue space of the firmament where the clouds fly by with the going and coming of the wind, fulfilling by this, natural laws, bringing water to bathe us and giving us life; we invite you to reflect about what THE MOTHER is, that innate MOTHER, who allows us to integrate in everything, making us one with the plants, rivers, seas, and with all those creatures who in the distinct kingdoms of this nature, move and have life. That Mother, in whose womb millions of creatures are fecundated and who are given feed by our Sun's Christ with His rays and His light; fertilizing life in abundance; that life which has had no beginning and will have no end; that infinity, which making payment in all worlds, sacrifices itself for all of us, rational beings.

Let's look at her example and see how she glides us laughingly and without making opposition to those who mistreat and destroy her; that pure white cloud which moves with such a heavy load to bathe us, so that our agriculture blossoms, and the nature which envelops us with its green smoothness, and which in spite of its efforts, no one recognizes it.

That Sun which illuminates us and gives us life each one equally – what love! – what greatness! – perceptible to our physical senses. The star-filled nights which we daily contemplate making us reflect about that great truth-that light which imposes itself upon the darkness and which cannot hide its brilliance, because the light and the darkness exist, but when there is light, it disappears.

THE AUTHOR

CHAPTER 1 THE VEIL IS REMOVED

We are going to try to get to our dear readers in this chapter with logic which life gives us and which heaven gives us; and you, with the light from your own consciousness, will know how to interpret. It's not our intention or interest to take away from or change the Christic and eternal values which through history we have been given to understand for the regeneration of the human being.

In view of the times in which we live and seeing the necessity of having a light on our path, we don't consider it just to keep those truths which are found behind the curtain of the unconsciousness and which, just so, the great Bible and esoteric teachings are hidden from the light of the human consciousness, those which have been left by the Christ and by all those messengers who have come in his name.

We should realize that all the religious preachers want to interpret the Bible texts according to their own point of view. Could it be that because a person goes through all the years of academic studies and fills his head with theories and facts, will awaken his consciousness and could interpret by the light of the truth, those mysteries which are enclosed in the Sacred Scriptures?

If we analyze, dear reader, that which is said, all those truths which are predicated here, there, and everywhere. Where is the fruit which they have given? Where are those teachers of perfection who have come out of all this? We have a degenerate world, filled with hate, pride and self-love. Dear reader, Lucas 6-27 says- "But to you, I say, Love your enemies, do well to those who hate you, bless those who curse you, and pray for those who speak against you". It really pains one to see, hundreds of people who they say are perfect wisemen and saints, religious preachers, hating to the death, slandering as if devils, Anti-Christians and satanists, those who do not share their religious ideas. Where is Love?

We consider that this is a business of souls. This is a fallacy of distraction where these poor souls, thirsty for light and wisdom, only find pride, fanaticism, self-love, false leadership, and dogmas in their religious guides. It's time to study the Sacred Scriptures with the light of the consciousness, by the light of the truth. Christ didn't leave religions, Christ left a message of redemption which is Love. Christ is a universal force which grows and embodies itself in the heart of the humble; it illuminates the consciousness of the just and redeems those who carry out the Law of God. John, 5-2, says: "In this it shall be known that we love the children of God, when we love God, we keep his commandments."

We can analyze by this light everything we see and hear on a daily basis; like the men who change the Bible texts with their bad interpretations; it's enough that we make a small analysis of these and you will be truly shown these bad interpretations and this way of offering and selling salvations done by thousands of preachers, who pretentiously think they are saved, redeemed; but let anyone contradict their theories and their fanaticisms and they thunder and lightening and shout excommunications left and right, so that these poor blind creatures who follow them, believe that their guides are conscious of what they say and do.

Don't forget that there are two doctrines faithfully defined: The Doctrine of the Eye and the Doctrine of the Heart.

The Doctrine of the Eye sees money everywhere, squander and pride of great sayings full of fantasy and fanaticism where the poor dispossessed and ignorant pass on to occupy very contemptible places, as if God only comes through the acquired attributes of this material world.

The Doctrine of the Heart is full of love, of comprehension and wisdom; it gives everything without waiting for a recompense, it loves the rich and the poor equally. This is to say, it is consciousness made man and man made consciousness.

THE COMMANDMENTS OF THE LAW OF GOD

Let's analyze this matter by the light of reality, as it really is, without putting any easy comforts on it, without putting any little flowers or fantasies on it, because the truth is as it is, and not any other way.

THE FIRST COMMANDMENT

TO LOVE GOD ABOVE ALL THINGS AND ONE'S FELLOW MAN AS ONESELF

Could anyone love God who hates his brother, who persecutes the religion of his brother, who does like the Publican and believes himself to be a saint, the martyr, the redeemer, who commences with sacred things, and who as the Minister of a church, charges for the Sacraments; it doesn't matter to him if anyone of his congregation has a wife, children and of a very low income, charging him the tithe and "God first", without taking into account that this is the food of the family. We have seen this and we are saying it here.

Dear reader, the "Tithe" and "Primacy", seen by the light of Sanscrit, means: God first, if you wish to serve with that tithe and that primacy to your church, giving the hungry something to eat, giving medicine to a sick person, helping the needy, since that creature, bad or unhappy as he may be, is also a child of God.

A church is constituted by groups of men and women to pay homage to the divinity as an obligation of consciousness and the fulfillment of a debt, but remember, that in Thessalonians, 3-10, 11, and 12, it says: "For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat. For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies. Now, them that are such, we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness, they work and eat their own bread.”

This indicates to us that in order to come to God, to do the work of the Father, to be authentic disciples of Christ, we need to follow his example to have love, understanding and charity, with our brothers, with Humanity.

THE SECOND COMMANDMENT

DO NOT TAKE THE LORD'S NAME IN VAIN

Remember, dear reader, the word is sacred, one cannot be lying to do well in business, to get along well with everyone, so that everyone will consider us the wisest of people. We have seen with much pain and worry how a person who violates and breaks the laws of God and of men, that the mere fact of belonging to a certain religion, his problem is solved, or telling his faults to a person, he has already been pardoned. Have you ever seen anything like that! The only one who has the right to forgive sins, is God, no human, believing himself to be the greatest saint, can do that; if he does, he's lying. This indicates to us that he is no more than a whitened sepulcher, wanting to do on earth, the functions that God does in heaven, since these functions are fulfilled through a supreme Law, Celestial Justice, which is to give each one that which corresponds to him.

Poor souls, those who believe the promises of these men who have taken on themselves the task to displace God and impose themselves. Don't forget, dear reader, that you, perhaps, are a serious and sincere person who wants to find the truth; don't look for it in anyone else, nor outside yourself, the truth is within you. Many liars, who don't even know themselves, say they know God and His mysteries.

Don't take his Sainted Name in vain, means that one must eradicate from oneself the lie and learn to tell the truth no matter what it costs or how much it hurts us and others.

THE THIRD COMMANDMENT

SANCTIFY THE HOLY DAYS

Much has been said and spoken about the Holy Days. It truly pains one to see how the religious preachers and commerce have made a true merchandise market with these holidays, as if for God, there existed one special day and not every one as special.

I believe that whoever becomes a preacher of a religion, must know the Bible, from Genesis to Apocalypse, having read it, studied and thought well about it; but since all of this has become a tremendous business; for that reason these things are not explained and are not taught as they really are. The truth is, dear reader, that this thing about love, is very difficult to understand; one sees how the politicians argue about the people, logically, in order to get their votes, to get their help, to have those who would elect them, and the same thing happens with religious leaders; they have gone about looking for people for themselves and not for God. That's why, it's getting frightening to tell the truth, exactly as it is and to teach the Bible with its authentic meaning; we also see that there's logic to this: the more people you have backing you, the more money enters in payments, in tithes and primacies, in donations; it's almost that the message of God isn't imparted for love but for money.

Remember, dear reader, in Lucas, 9-58, Christ says: “ Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of man hath not where to lay his head.” This allows us to see with clarity how some religious preachers, at the expense of the people, waste money, without taking into consideration the needs of the poor. It's not a rule given by God, but because religion has turned it into a business, into self-profit. Why? If Christ himself, had no luxuries, why then do our preachers have them for themselves? It's logical that all religions or religious sects need to have their temples; these temples should be built with voluntary donations from their congregation, humble places, where love for humanity and the work of Christ reigns.

Dear reader, we invite you to study the Sacred Scriptures, and you can see for yourself that we are being fooled, that they are hiding the truth from us, and this is a lack of charity with humanity and with Christ who gave everything for us.

If we look at Matthew, 5-17, Christ says: "Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfill." I have seen the case of some preachers who say that the Old Testament has been annulled; others say that with only faith and belief one will be saved; but we repeat John, 5-2, where it says: "When we love God, we keep his commandments." Sanctifying the holy days is not done with drunkenness, with wild parties or going to church to take donations, tithes and primacies; this is done in our own temple of the heart.

In Matthew, 6-1, it says: "Take heed that ye do not your alms before men, to be seen of them: otherwise ye have no reward of your Father which is in heaven. Therefore when thou doest Thine alms, do not sound a trumpet before thee, as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the streets, that they may have glory of men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. But when thou doest alms, let not thy left hand know what thy right hand doeth: That thine alms may be in secret: and thy Father which seeth in secret himself shall reward thee openly."

Matthew, 6-5, says: "And when thou prayest, thou shalt not be as the hypocrites are: for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and in the corners of the streets, that they may be seen of men. Verily I say unto you, they have their reward. But thou, when thou prayest, enter into thy closet, and when thou has shut thy door, pray to thy Father which is in secret; and thy Father which seeth in secret shall reward thee openly. But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking."

This shows that the Holy Days to which the Sacred Scriptures refer, are those Holy Days of the soul; they are the moments when our Being comes towards us, where with a clean, pure and serene mind and with a heart full of love, we humbly bow down praying and speaking in ecstasy with our own God.

The Sacred Scriptures also say to us: "Do ye not know that ye are Temples of God and that God lives within ye?" John, 2-15, says: "And when he had made a scourge of small cords, he drove them all out of the temple and the sheep, and the oxen; and poured out the changer's money, and overthrew the tables; and said unto them that sold doves, Take these things hence; make not my Father's house a house of merchandise". And Jesus said, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it up. Then said the Jews, Forty and six years was this temple in building, and wilt thou rear it up in three days? But he spake of the temple of his body". This indicates to us that the authentic Temple of God is our own body. That is where we must Sanctify the Holy Days.

THE FOURTH COMMANDMENT

HONOR THY FATHER AND THY MOTHER

In this commandment we can analyze by the light of our consciousness, that the people who wish to discount the live and active presence of the Divine Mother called The Virgin, are mistaken, because since each one of us has a Father, indisputably, we have a Mother; we are referring to that Father and that Mother found in heaven; to that Eternal Masculine and that Eternal Feminine, who constitute that Holy Affirmation and the Holy Negation, so that through a regeneration and work, the Son, the Christ, is born in us, grows and develops within, in other words, that Holy Conciliation.

Honoring the Father and Mother is very different from loving and respecting, holding in esteem our earthly daddy and mommy. In order to honor our Father, one must eliminate the psychological defects, and in order to honor our Mother, one must be chaste in thoughts, words and deeds. That's what pains us so much, that is, that we must eliminate our very dear ego, our psychological defects and so much more; and that we must be chaste. Certainly, we understand that for some reason chastity is called the "scandalous stumbling block." Remember, that in Romans, 1-28, it says: "And even as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not convenient; Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of envy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity, whisperers, backbiters, haters of God despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents, without understanding, covenant-breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful: Who, knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but have pleasure in them that do them."

I think, that this is more than sufficient, dear reader, principally all religious people and preachers, those who believe themselves to be saints and already saved, perfect people, who breathe deeply in order to excommunicate those who don't think as they do; who take the liberty to judge someone and say they are delinquent, and when they tell them their sins, they pardon them; and to those who promise to affiliate themselves to their religions, they are promised pardon and salvation, without doing any kind of work or regenerating themselves, being fornicators, full of hate and all kinds of malignity. Poor people! Who don't look down because they think they are so high up. I feel deep pain to have to say these things, but I do it for humanity, for so many creatures who are looking for the truth, but who only find lies, cheating and false promises from all those preachers who hide the truth found in the Sacred Scriptures. Poor blind people! Wanting to guide the blind. Dear reader, in order to honor The Father and The Mother we have to be pure, chaste, eliminating the Ego, the "me", love humanity as Christ taught us, so that we will become perfect just like our Father who is hidden within us.

We have already seen through space and the mass media, the conversations, the excommunications, the curses and the scorn that they will lance against us, all of those desperate ones who negotiate with souls, but don't forget, dear reader, that the truth causes havoc. Christ said, "I have not come to bring peace to the world, but wars and dissension. Children will rise up against their fathers and the fathers against their children in my name."

THE FIFTH COMMANDMENT

THOU SHALT NOT KILL

In this chapter we will analyze something very basic and fundamental to every authentic Christian. Let us remember that according to the Sacred Scriptures, the second crime known in the human species, after the sin of Adam and Eve which caused them to be thrown out of Paradise, was when Cain, full of jealousy and envy, killed Abel.

To this, it is clear, that we must make a profound analysis, since Adam and Eve were not one man and one woman but a whole generation. Abel, it is to be understood, is our Being, our God within us, and Cain the Ego, that psychological "me" who always kills that Abel with the jawbone of a mule, symbol of the mind.

If Adam and Even only had two male children, how is it that the religious preachers want us to believe with their false interpretations of the Bible; where is that woman Cain married and later had so many children with? For those people who want to know and understand these mysteries and for those who are esoteric, Cain had two wives who are Lilith and Nahemah, correctly speaking the Mothers of all those infra-human crimes which the human being could possibly commit.

The Fifth Commandment prohibits us to kill, but ...to kill, What is that? Truly, this justifies a profound explanation. One doesn't kill only with a knife, a bullet or poison; one kills with betrayal, with scorn, stealing a person's honor; remember, dear reader, that Christ said: "I am the Way, the Truth and Life".

Could it be..."Where is Life?" Isn't it in the air we breathe, in the oxygen? And we are contaminating it; isn't it in the Earth and we are destroying it? Is it not in the humble plant which we destroy on a daily basis? Is it not the littlest animal or the biggest animal? Is it not in the human being and we are killing each other?

What do you think about this, dear reader? Isn't it that we think that the more Christian we say we are, we are committing the most horrendous crimes against Christ? What could the most learned men of the Bible say to us? What efforts are they making so that the men of today and the new generations become conscious of respecting life, that they have to preserve it and not kill it, not destroy it, because it is the expression of Christ? Do not kill! As we said, it deserves a profound analysis and reflection; don't you think, dear reader, that these great campaigns the governments have to repress crime, vandalism, and pillage are the solution; that is trying to repress an evil which exists in each one of us, and for which we must be conscious and decide not to kill; let's not wait for someone to put a rifle to our chest or that we are watched in order for us to stop committing such horrendous crimes. How many doctors learn how to, for money practice abortions? If these are lives in potential, how many women because of what would be said about them, kill their children? How many plantation owners and men in the country, practice artificial insemination these days? And plant grafts to acquire better dividends? Thereby taking away the right of Nature to unite those masculine and feminine seeds, so that it could be a natural process, and so these crimes against Nature would not exist, which are being committed by the men of science these days. How many test-tube babies are being born in these times of Kali-yuga and human degeneration?

Dear reader, I don't want you to tell me I'm right, but I must tell you that this is a terrible violation and degeneration of the rights and of the natural laws, these are in pardoned faults and sins against Nature. Remember, that these essences, submitted to these experiments are being obstructed in their evolution and this is grave indeed! Many people who are committing these crimes would laugh at us, but the only thing which matters to us is to say these truths, so that a few men and women who want to practice real Christianity, will not continue to fall into these offences because of ignorance; those which would make them descend into the infra-worlds to cleanse these offences against Christ and against Nature; we know that at these moments there are people to whom life means nothing, but we also know that in this degenerate and corrupt world, there are still some men and women who have some bit of consciousness in order to understand these things and not continue one the same path, descending, as this humanity, who in the great majority, is in involution.

We have seen thousands of young people, out there, of both sexes who are taking drugs, killing themselves in life, and turning into degenerates. In Romans, 1-26, it says: "For this cause God gave them up unto vile affections; for even their women did change the natural use into that which is against nature: and likewise also the men, leaving the natural use of the woman, burned in their lust one toward another; men with men working that which is unseemly, and receiving in themselves that recompense of their error which was meet." This indicates to us that the homosexuals, the lesbians, are people who kill life, committing this kind of aberration causing their own degeneration.

What would you say, dear reader, when we see across our T.V. screens, over the radio and in the newspapers, that this class of people, sometimes, even feel proud of being the way they are, and we have seen through the news, that these couples of degenerates have even been officially united in marriage in some countries as well; What a way to kill life! One is amazed how the superpowers of the world each day are discovering new inventions of how to best use atomic energy in order to kill; how the best motion pictures, presented to us on television are filled with crime and sex, and we can only resign ourselves into receiving these mistreatments which are done to us. What could we hope for from our children with this kind of teaching? You can already imagine; well, our sons will turn into assassins and our girls will be prostitutes, but we are obliged to accept this because this is today's culturalization and woe to those who protest about this; you are called antiquated, scorned, harassed and if possible, dead.

THE SIXTH COMMANDMENT

DO NOT FORNICATE

We want to make a clarification on this point since there has been a distortion of the reality of which the words are: Do Not Fornicate and Do Not Adulterate. The religious preachers, in their great majority, have confused these, and we can't let this go by without clearing up the meaning of these points by the light of the Sacred Scriptures. The Sixth Commandment is very clear and explicit; it refers to the discharge of the Sexual Energy. We have seen the case in which science defends fornication wanting to make people see that they are biological, natural, functions which one needs for a normal development; if this were true, then God would have been mistaken when he left such a clear and explicit commandment: Corinthians I, 6-13, says: "Meats for the belly, and the belly for meats: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body." And John I, 3-9 says: "Whosoever is born of God doth not commit sin; for his seed remaineth in him: and he cannot sin, because he is born of God."

Hebrews, 13-4, says: "Marriage is honourable in all, and the bed undefiled: but whoremongers (fornicators) and adulterers God will judge." As we can see in this point, both are mentioned: Fornication and Adultery.

Fornication, as we have already said, is the discharge of semen; and adultery is practicing the sexual act with various people. What we see is that those who have interpreted the Sacred Scriptures to teach them, are afraid to reveal this mystery which is related to the "stumbling block"; rightly so, Christ said to Pedro: "Upon this rock I will build my Church and the doors of Hell will not prevail over her."

The science of the scientific transmutation exists, which is the same mystery, Arcane A.Z.F.; this science was what the medieval alchemists practiced. In Daniel, 2-19, it says: "Then was the secret revealed unto Daniel in a night vision. Then Daniel blessed the God of Heaven." In Leviticus, 15-16, it says: "And if any man's seed of copulation go out from him, then he shall wash all his flesh in water, and be unclean until the even." In Ezekiel 5-7, it says: "Therefore thus saith the Lord God; Because ye multiplied more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my judgements."

This verse speaks about the very same demographic explosion which has happened because of this unbalanced animal passion. This also indicates to us that when one practices the Scientific Chastity, The Arcane A.Z.F., it is not necessary for women to use birth control pills of any kind, because when a child must be born, it comes from the Law, bringing benefits to those homes and to humanity; this would avoid also, so many doctors who practice abortions, not only putting Karma on themselves, but augmenting the world's Karma. In Ezekiel, 16-15, it says: "But thou didst trust in thine own beauty, and playedst the harlot because of thy renown, and poured out thy fornications on every one that passed-by." I believe that the preachers of the Bible should have enough valor to teach humanity these truths and not continue hiding them, so that many people can find the true road to get to God.

They shouldn't be afraid to tell the truth, nor to remain with a few people or to have little money coming in; it's preferable to renounce all these things and to have a clean conscious and to know that you have taught humanity the authentic doctrine of Christ; as he and his prophets have taught, with nothing changed or conditioned by men.

God created man and woman to live together in love and holiness, as it is taught to us in Timothy, I, 3-2: "A bishop then must be blameless, the husband of one wife, vigilant, sober, of good behaviour, given to hospitality, apt to teach; not given to wine, no striker, not greedy of filthy lucre; but patient, not a brawler, not covetous; One that ruleth well his own house, having his children in subjection with all gravity; (For if a man know not how to rule his own house, how shall he take care of the church of God?)”

All of this allows us to see that the truth is not being told to us by the religious men; these great teachings are in the Sacred Scriptures, but they cannot be revealed by blind men who want to guide groups of blind people. One needs to awaken one's consciousness; one needs to love humanity; one needs to have less attachment to money; one needs to have more of a Christian vocation; one needs to recognize that we are imperfect and that we need to perfect ourselves; we need the religious preachers to leave off believing that they own God and accept the fact that God is a force which is everywhere and that one needs a regeneration to succeed in the embodiment of it.

Remember in Corinthians I, 10-4 it says: “And did all drink the same spiritual drink; for they drank of that spiritual Rock and followed them: and that Rock was Christ.” I believe that for many people, this is painful, but this is what the Sacred Scriptures teach us; The Rock is Sex; he who discharges his semen, is lost, but remember for the sinner all doors are closed, except for one, that of repentance.

It is justly so that a great modern humanist has said: “If a man and a woman knew what they were going to lose in fornication, instead of going to it laughing, they would go crying.”

Corinthians, I, 7-29, says: “But this I say, brethren, the time is short: it remaineth, that both they that have wives be as though they had none.” Ephesians, 5-14, says: “Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wisemen.”

In this chapter we have put emphasis on the awakening of the consciousness, so that it be the very same consciousness who interprets the Bible's texts and not the fanatic, dogmatic, mind of some preachers.

THE SEVENTH COMMANDMENT

THOU SHALT NOT STEAL

It is necessary to understand that the teachings which are in the Sacred Scriptures are exactly as they were given by the Apostles and which were given to be translated; unfortunately, if we compare some editions of the Holy Bible, we will find that they don't have the same verses textually. All of this is being modified, adulterated. We possess the original texts of that which we are writing.

TO STEAL, does not only mean to take something which already has an owner, to steal is to rob someone's honor; to steal is to take possession of a teaching which is not one's own, changing its originality, its contents; to steal is when one makes himself the owner of something which doesn't correspond to him.

As we have seen through experience and in this book we have repeated many times how some religious preachers argue about the truth, giving one to understand that they are the owners of it, of their sect, of their dogma and of their fanaticism. They don't remember that Christ said, “Seek the truth and it will make you free”. Excuse us, dear reader, but it would seem that they would like to steal a right which is of all humanity and not of a certain person or religion.

We ask that our natural right be respected that which all of us have to be sons of God; without being submitted to caprice or patterns which so many religious fanatics have imposed on us who believe themselves owners, as we have already said, which is not even of this world, but the Truth is a divine emanation. It could be that some of the readers believe that we are not religious or that we are against religions, but that is not so; we are profoundly religious. What happens is that we do not share the dogmas, the fanaticisms and the lies which the religious preachers use to get souls for their business.

We want humanity to be told the truth, to be taught the truth. We would like humanity to revolt and look for the truth. In Ephesians, 6-12, it says: "For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places."

This indicates to us that evil disguises itself as a saint. On many occasions people of good faith are causing irreparable damage believing that they are doing the right thing; but that is not so. Corinthians II, 11-13, says: "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ. And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light. Therefore it is not great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works. . . .I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little." In Matthew, 6-19, it says: "Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth, where moth and rust doth corrupt, and where thieves break through and steal: But lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust doth corrupt, and where thieves do not break through nor steal your earthly treasures nor your spiritual virtues."

Corinthians, I, 5-10 says: "Yet not altogether with the fornicators of this world, or with the covetous, or extortioners or with idolaters; for then must ye needs go out of the world, But now I have written unto you not to keep company, if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard or an extortioner; with such a one no not to eat."

THE EIGHTH COMMANDMENT

THOU SHALT NOT RAISE FALSE TESTIMONY NOR LIE

Analyzing this commandment we find that in today's life it is very common for anybody to be judged and condemned for false testimonies; as in the case of an honorable woman whose honor is stolen, or the case of an honorable gentleman, who is accused of some crime which he has not committed; but, dear reader, this is nothing new. Remember, that two thousand years ago, Caiaphas, the chief priest, raised the people against Jesus, when they accused him of being a delinquent and asked for his death, because, it is said, he went against all beliefs and dogmatisms of that time, and they killed him.

If we glance back to those black times of the Holy Inquisition, every poor person who, for whatever false testimony, was accused before these religious men, was treated as a heretic, a witch, and they killed him. It's not necessary to show many statistics of this; we simply want to show a glimpse of what has been the said history of religious preachers in the world, using Christ's teachings to destroy the Work of Christ.

Today, we find ourselves at the point of the agony of a race and we don't want to remain silent; we must say this publicly, that the worst calamity on earth of the Doctrine of Christ, has been due to the guilt of the religious preachers.

In the third Epistle of John, it says: "Beloved, follow not that which is evil, but that which is good. He that doeth good is of God: but he that doeth evil hath not seen God." False testimonies and lies have bathed the world in blood and tears; I have seen the sad case of some religious preachers calling the Pope an AntiChrist. Could it be that these gentlemen don't realize that the Antichrist is everyone who distorts the Doctrine of Christ? We have also seen the very said and painful case of some religious people dealing with esoterists as satanists; these esoterists who are also searching, through their studies for some kind of a regeneration, a transformation and the awakening of their consciousness. Is it just or reasonable to treat these great schools of regeneration which have been in the world, authentic religions, like Zen Buddhism, the Islamic religion, the Rosacruicians, the Gnostics, etc., etc., as pagans, heretics, by people who have studied many years in universities and in seminaries? And, after all, they know that these great schools of regeneration, have been, are, and will continue to be the trustees of the great Christian mysteries which have taken many men and women through to that intimate self-realization of their Being; where are their studies? Where is their wisdom? Where is their love? And I am sure that if, at these very moments, Jesus of Nazareth would make himself present in this world, unmasking all of the lies and all of the traitors, those who, swear with hand over heart, in His name, they would kill him; there would always be a Head Priest, a Caiaphas, to raise the people against Him (bad will), there would always be a Pontius Pilate who would wash his hands(the intellect) and there would always be a Judas who would sell him for thirty coins. There, we would see them; they are the same who played the same part two thousand years ago; there, we'd see the soldiers who mistreated him, who slapped him in the face, drawing lots to see who would win his robe, the robe of Christ, because that's how we humans are; we never want to see ourselves as we really are. We always believe ourselves to be saints, the perfect ones, and much less, those who know the Bible from cover to cover; they believe that with this, they have stopped being fornicators, adulterers, full of hate, of arrogance, of pride, of bad will of envy, of covetousness. Christ said, "Faith without works, means nothing."

We congratulate those who know the Bible but we invite them to live all of its sacred teachings. Let's not forget that he who lies, sins against the Father, who is the truth; that he who fornicates, sins against the Holy Spirit who is Purity; and he who hates, sins against Christ who is Love.

THE NINTH COMMANDMENT

THOU SHALT NOT DESIRE THY NEIGHBOR'S WIFE

As we see in this commandment, the Sacred Scriptures censure desire, passion. Any woman, be she married or single, does not belong to us as our own; we humans, as Sons of God, belong to Him, and nobody else.

Our fellow man is Humanity and the Christian man or the Christian woman, who fulfills and respects the Law, cannot desire that which does not correspond to him-her. If this did not encompass all women, then it would mean, that yes, we could desire the single women.

As we have already said, our fellow man is Humanity as a whole, and as we see, the Commandments of the Law of God are for all Humanity; a woman is not permitted to commit the same sin either. In Ephesians, 5-21-32, we find: "Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God. Wives, submit yourselves unto your own husbands, as unto the Lord. For the husband is the head of the wife, even as Christ is the head of the Church: and he is the Saviour of the Body. Therefore, as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in every thing. Husbands, love your wives, even as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it; that he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word, that he might present it to himself, a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish. So ought men, to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loveth his wife loveth himself. For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourisheth and cherisheth it, even as the Lord, the church: For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones. For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh."

Here, we can see the mutual respect which should exist between man and woman, and if man and woman are two lives within one flesh, we understand the seriousness which encompasses desiring her, because in this way, one is united to one's husband-wife. We invite every authentic Christian to profoundly reflect about this commandment. These days, divorce is fashionable, abandonments, quarrels between husbands and wives, all of this being against this commandment.

THE TENTH COMMANDMENT

THOU SHALT NOT COVET THY NEIGHBOR'S PROPERTY

As in all of them we can see: covetousness, envy, as determining factors in the life of Humanity, and if we analyze this kind of sin, it belongs to the capital sins, the heads of the legion. Covetousness makes people feel non-conformity with what we have, with what God gives us; covetousness makes people be envious, rancorous and hateful.

In Timothy, II, 3-2, it says: "This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come. For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good. Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God."

This shows how covetousness makes man withdraw from God; it makes him arrogant, proud, hateful, selfish; that is to say, he who sins against the tenth commandment, sins against the first: "To love God above all things."

THE PRESENT MOMENT

We have spoken in previous chapters of the sad and painful way religious preachers have been managing the teachings left by Christ or by His prophets for the regeneration or salvation of the human race; but the facts show that as time goes by, humanity goes farther and farther away from God; man believes less in His prophets and there is more atheism and this has its just reasons: with this kind of exploitation and business dealings with souls, What can one expect? And what would you say of those political bosses who govern us; those who are super-powerful, who have it in their hands to destroy us at any given moment?

Dear reader, doesn't it seem to you to be terribly sad and painful that humanity finds itself in this situation with these kinds of systems which guide and govern us? How many creatures are hungry for wisdom and searching for a refuge for their soul, who arrive at some school of thought where they hear some chatterers repeating like parrots what they don't know, believing that the salvation of the soul is like blowing and making glass bottles and the poor people, to whom they do a kind of "brainwashing", continue believing that they are rubbing elbows with God; that they are the select and chosen, that they don't need to confront themselves, to eliminate from their mind and psyches, that gamut of defects, those, "me, me, me's", and in fact all of the legion; they simply become fanatics, blind believers guided by another blind person. No one is able to make them understand the misery in which they, themselves, are.

Meanwhile, the time is passing by, believing that we've already saved our souls, the men of science come, the owners of the super-powers, producing, nothing less than the continuation of the Third World War, which has already begun in the Middle East, and all of us, humanity, is now suffering in flesh and blood, the effects of this barbarity; and this they try to make us look at, as a means of finding peace, and what can we say? Nothing! Many accept it because they believe in it and those who do not accept it, we have to be quiet.

We are living on a planet which is agonizing: The air is contaminated, the water is contaminated, the ozone layer is being destroyed each day, and the men of science are making great atomic tests, thousands of oil wells are burning day and night in the Persian Gulf, the super-powers threaten to squash the weak with their might and all of us, all of humanity, waits for the moment to arrive to leave this world. The leaving of it is not what we should fear; one should fear having to leave it without any preparation. If Christ said, "Seek the truth and it will make you free." Dear reader, look for yours within yourself and, dare, don't be afraid to say a big round NO to so many charlatans, liars, who want to fatten their lines of fools; we want Freedom; May Freedom Live! A physical and spiritual freedom, but don't seek it from anyone because they aren't going to give it to you. Look for it in yourself. Decide to eliminate your faults, decide to be chaste, decide to sacrifice yourself for humanity and you will be an authentic Christian.

We see a lot of people around distorting and abolishing the teachings left by the authentic Avatar of Aquarius, destroying the Works of this Great Master, and going from town to town, from city to city, just like the others offering salvation, giving out initiations to those fools who believe in their farce and lies. We want to be free, we want to be independent. We shouldn't forget that Christ is a Doctrine and the Avatar of Aquarius is a message. We need to have our eyes well opened, our ears well uncovered and be in alert perception so that these charlatans, imposters, don't confound us.

Remember, dear reader, that in this improbable and mixed-up world, it is very difficult to find people with noble and healthy intentions. Don't forget that in the fragrance of the prayer, and the smoke of the incense, you can also find the hidden offense.

Help us, so that this message of freedom and of optimism gets to those people who are hungry for wisdom, who are looking for the path with sincerity, the road which will have to lead us to an awakening of consciousness and to a self-realization.

THE SCIENCE OF THE BEING, THE SCIENCE OF CHRIST, AND THE SCIENCE OF THE ANTI-CHRIST

Let's take a look at the ancient cultures as a civilization is born, how it projects itself victoriously toward the conquest of objective knowledge in which we have seen great men and women, Priests and Priestesses of Nature, experts and practitioners of the pure science of the spirit, chaste and pure men and women, who knew how to govern and obey Nature; who directed their people with love and with wisdom and who at the same time, were religious, they were scientists, who did not use science for business, nor commerced with souls, but fulfilled an apostolic mission, and humanity in that era had another sense, to find the mysteries of life and death; in those days, when a child was born he was first taught respect for life and respect for God.

All of this occurred in harmony with the notes which sustain the universe; but, since everything in existence is always in movement, evolution advanced and the anti-Christ programmer came into being; that which manages the human mind on all its levels. Men began to see how the intellectual spoke better, he was more astute and, of course, more practical to earn one's living easier, envy and covetousness came into the mentality of humanity; one wanting to know more than the other, but all this related to the world.

And in this way this humanity began to withdraw from God. Intellectual rogues we see nowadays came into being. These had an intellect full of programs and logic but no spirituality.

Each one, as we have said before, started doing his own invention with the finality of out-doing the next one. No one was interested in love anymore, or in the Law of God. The intellectuals started writing laws and more laws; unfortunately, these men had access to religion and began to modify, to condition everything according to their whims; they displaced the Internal Father of the people, being He who has the power to pardon and to guide his child. They imposed themselves, saying they had the authority to forgive, to condemn, to excommunicate; the Doctrine of Christ was then given to humanity with that conditioning, getting to the point that the great wise Priests of the Incas, Chibchas, Muiscas, etc., were killed and those who were not murdered had to flee because of the terrible persecution.

This whole series of events has brought about the consequence that a person is not valued for what he is but for the theories he has; as if the men on the earth, because of their intellectual studies had the power and the don to create consciousness and a soul for others. Today, we see the sad pain of illnesses which only a few years ago, doctors cured with natural medicine, halopathic medicine; today, the same ones say, "if we don't operate, he'll die."

Only a few years ago when a person went to a doctor, he attended whatever illness, because he knew general medicine. Since every thing in this day and age is degenerating, most people have complications in our health; if one has something wrong with the intestine, the throat, liver, kidney, arthritis, one must go to a specialist, one who treats the live, another the throat, another who treats the intestine, another specialist who treats the kidney and another who treats arthritis. Which means, this poor patient has to pay at least five doctors to resolve those five pains.

The one who treats him for the throat gives him a prescription and orders an operation for him on his tonsils which before were curable without an operation. The one who diagnosed the illness of the liver, will prepare him for an operation on his gall bladder, which before, 95% of the people were cured without an operation. The one who diagnosed the problem with his intestine, will give him a treatment and prepare him for an operation; The one who treated him for the kidney, will send him for a transplant, and the one who treated him for arthritis will give him aspirins to take for life because it has no cure.

This is not a critique of the general state of doctors because there are very honest doctors, but the majority have no soul and live on other people's pain. A poor woman comes to a hospital to give birth and because the doctor needs $5,000. to go out on the town that night or because the woman doesn't give birth quickly or he's tired, he performs a cesarian on her. Have you ever seen such a thing!

Dear reader, we have to wake up to the crude reality of the facts. Each one of us has the universal medicine which is our own: Regeneration. Each one of us must resort to systems which are permitted us, for the most part; live in better circumstances; good nourishment, good breathing, healthy exercise, good meditation, a lot of prayer, a lot of transmutation, a healthy mind, go out into the countryside more and to depend less on so many patterns for our lives. Instead of reading pornography, and harmful bad news, we should read a good book; try to share our ideas with healthy, dynamic people; don't let ourselves get infected with the false science of so many illustrated charlatans; let us realize that when man is not able to overcome his own inventions, he degenerates. Man is already degenerated; there's nothing more to do; we must think that from this abyss in which we now are, we must escape; each one of us by our own means. These means are: Awaken consciousness, look at the reality in which we live, don't continue imitating the filthiness of the world, producing a radical change in our thought and in our actions.

Understand, dear reader, that we have to be free, independent, not depend on anyone on Earth. If we receive some teaching from a Master of life or from an instructor, and that teaching gives us results, then it's good. We should follow the teachings and not the person. If we belong to a religious institution, whichever it may be, we should continue in it for its doctrine, not for its statutes or norms. Remember, dear reader, each person is a free world in his expression and for that reason, any other law which interposes itself on that world, produces reactions which withdraw us from the truth.

Away with the commerce of souls! Away with the dogmas, the fanaticisms! Men and women who love liberty, who want to be free, let us say a flat NO to all of these political bosses who want to impose their false concepts, their mistaken opinions on us. Don't forget that Bolivar (Liberator of most of South America), gave us liberty and God makes us free. Those political and religious bosses, those scientific and intellectual charlatans are the ones who have taken it upon themselves to move us away from God and his precepts; and we, the men and women of good will, lovers of authentic Christianity, pure, simple, unaffected, uncomplicated, we are going to take on the task of looking for it until we find it, just as Christ taught it to us when he said: "Seek for the truth and it will make you free."

We have no name; our religion is love and the fulfilling of the Law of God. Don't forget that for this, there are three basic fundamentals:

First: Destroy the Ego, eliminate our defects.

Second: Scientific Chastity and rebirth.

Third: Sacrifice for Humanity

He who does this, doesn't need to bow down or give honor to any man, nor does he need to be an intellectual, nor does he need to pay dues to anyone in order to succeed in his self-realization and his salvation.

There is a phrase that Christ said: "Be gentle like the paloma but malicious like the serpent". These wise words will help us to avoid continuing to fall and believe in so many farces and lies of so many religious preachers, of so many political and scientific liars who are making atomic bombs, supersonic planes, ultramodern guns to humiliate us and kill us.

BELIEFS AND FANATICISMS

In the present chapter we will analyze by the light of experience, which has been, is and will continue being the crude reality of the evolution of this world and of humanity. As we have said before, the world is not the Earth but the systems of life. These systems, according to humanity which habitually uses them and its behavior, vary in superior and inferior octaves.

The human being, perhaps by natural instinct, has a tendency to depend on someone or something. In olden times those great cultures which existed, lived by agriculture for their sustenance, exchanging their products for their arts and crafts. They were diligent science and religious practitioners. At that time, no man nor woman would have been a nonconformist with what God had given him-her. It wouldn't have occurred to them.

As it came to pass through the same evolution, there began in each one, the desire to have more things, and, logically, this impeded their dedication to have enough time to devote to their practices of religion and science. These people, then, began to depend on their own inventions, as we've already said, great aspirations were born for those earthly things. This is a brief vision of what man was, what he is and what he will continue being.

Today, we see the human being divided into so many groups and some called social strata. All this is related to the world with its money and with its intellect; he who has a lot of money, depends on that same money, from the banks and from his businesses. He who has less money, depends on he who has more, and who also has his businesses and his worries and, logically, with aspirations of becoming like the one who has more. He who has less, depends on the work the one who has more gives him and on the conditions which the rich man puts on him. One could never believe that either one of these are simply slaves and neither of them know what freedom is, nor could they have peace due to the dependency they have.

The same thing happens with the politician. The President depends on the Congress, the Senate, the International Treaties. No one can do what he wants nor what he thinks; the Minister depends on what he is ordered to do by the President and on the obligations acquired with his cronies and their promises. So, in that order we see the Presidents, Senators, Ministers, Congressmen and governors, mayors and police chiefs. All of these have an interdependency with one another. Who's free? What would these people say: "I'm going to do what I want," without any law, obligation, or superiors impeding him. They are poor slaves believing themselves to be free, believing themselves to be the big boss, and, logically, always finding a victim to demonstrate their force, their power, their authority; some poor "John Doe" has to pay the price; and what could we say about the religious people? The same!

We have seen through history, the sad and lamentable case of how we have inherited the same ignorance, the same dogmas and fanaticisms, and the worst of it all, the same conformism. We are too conservative in traditions; when you speak to someone about the awakening of consciousness, the first thing one remembers is what his grandfather left him, his father and his mother, and of course, one says, "I can't change my religion." This poor person doesn't want to admit that his grandfather, his father, all of his ancestors were so poor and ignorant that they were born, they grew up, they reproduced like animals and died just like any other person, some in beds of feathers, and others in the best clinics, and others like dogs, on the side of the road; but that with death, everything ended. Some were buried in luxurious tombs, others maybe without a coffin, in the mere earth, but these, like the others, became the favorite food of the worms. And the consciousness, What about that? What about the values acquired in life? And what of the religion they belonged to? What did that do for them? What a sad reality, isn't that so, dear reader. Isn't that the truth? But that's us, humans.

It's better for a person to say that he doesn't believe in anything nor in anyone and fulfills the Law of God and not be like those charlatans who believe they are already saved and go around forgiving the sins of others. Poor creatures. They don't know or want to know that salvation is something very individual, something very personal; and it doesn't depend on "pardons" from people. Christ was very clear when he said, "Deny yourself, take up your cross, and follow me." The Bible says: "One must be perfect as our Father who is in Heaven".

These people who say they don't want to leave where they are because this is the religion their grandparents taught them, they don't want to search for their own perfection, they don't want to liberate themselves from these yokes that they have, from these laws of moral ethics which men have written. The majority could be the script for the theater. Those poor people believe in that which they have made us practice, those schools which are called religions, haven't wanted to understand that there is only one religion in the whole world, and Christ lived it and practiced it; that religion is called LOVE – LOVE – LOVE. He confirmed it when he prayed for everyone who tortured him and said, "Father, forgive them, because they know not what they do." He who does not seek his regeneration because he doesn't want to change his beliefs and says, it's the religion his grandparents bequeathed him, is a poor shadow, an inhabitant of this buried world, ready to continue collaborating with the empire of darkness and with the economy of nature, letting himself be swallowed up every time.

Dear reader, search out your freedom, seek your own being, search for that flight towards the highest spheres, seek to be like the Condor who flies through the heights of space and lives to reproduce one the highest peaks, where no other bird nor animal can cause him harm. For the love of God and for the conquest of the Being, let us break all these chains and fetters which have tied us to this world and to its systems.

May the most profound Peace reign in your hearts.

V. M. LAKHSMI
